

ORGANISATION

Contemporary art. Public space.

DISIVA presents contemporary and digital art through curated exhibitions on monumental urban screens. Its programme brings artistic research into everyday public life and connects artists with audiences beyond the traditional gallery space.

Approach

Working across art, technology and the moving image, DISIVA treats the city as an exhibition space. Exhibitions bring together artists, curators and collaborators through projects developed for large-scale digital displays.

From Art Innovation Gallery to DISIVA

Formerly known as Art Innovation Gallery, DISIVA continues the exhibition programme documented in its archive. Earlier exhibitions and media coverage may appear under the Art Innovation Gallery name. Original publication titles are retained in the press archive.
